CES Students are Respectful, Responsible and Safe!

Pizza Hut Night is Wednesday
11:40 Dismissal Friday

School Security

Like many schools across our country today, security of students and staff will be discussed. With each situation of school violence or disaster, school officials review emergency plans and make any necessary changes. We practice emergency situations including school and bus evacuations, fire, storm and emergencies involving intruders. We cannot plan for every contingency in an emergency, but we do learn from unfortunate situations at other schools. We have plans for the unlikely event of unwanted intrusions. In the light of the horrific situation in Connecticut, we are reviewing these plans. It is quite likely that we will have an emergency drill for an unwanted intruder in the very near future.

Christmas Programs

Tonight, the students in grades 4-6 will perform at our first Christmas program. This includes the fifth grade band, sixth grade band and singing Orioles. Tomorrow, December 18, the preschool through 3rd grade students will perform. Both programs begin at 7 pm. Seating for both programs will begin at 6:30 pm.

Pizza Hut Night Is Wednesday

This Wednesday night is Pizza Hut Night. The Concordia Pizza Hut sponsors the Dough for Schools program and donates 15% of their profit to CES. All orders whether dine in, carry out, drive through or online qualify. Stop by Pizza Hut and help out our school.
